

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Jim Costa (CA-20) will be available Friday, February 11 at California State University Bakersfield in the Business Development Center, Room 165. He will report on his first month in Washington and his current committee assignments. Congressman Costa will be speaking at a Political Science class until 2pm on the campus and will be available immediately following. The Business Development Center is located directly across from the President's Office on campus.

Please contact our office directly if you would like to schedule an interview or receive a statement.

Date: Friday, February 11, 2005

The Office of Congressman Jim Costa

Contact: Kherstin Khan

559.495.1620

Jack Hall

559.930.7956